

Abstract

In my bachelor's thesis „The analysis of specific theological topics in Ellen G. White's writings Conflict of the Ages" first introduce the history of formation Seventh-Day Adventist Church, including social and religious context in USA and religious movement under William Miller as a leader because of in this context E. G. White was her personality and faith under formation. In the second part of my thesis I describe life and life's work E. G. White focused on the most important milestones of her life which had an influence on her prophet's and writing's mission among millerist's movement and then Seventh-Day Adventist Church. I also present some of the most important critical voices of E. G. White life's work. In the third part I shortly introduce particular volumes Ellen G. White's writings Conflict of the Ages which cover the Great controversy story since satan's revolt in the heaven toward Jesus Christ's second coming. Here I present list of identified theological themes in writings Conflict of the Ages. The last part of my bachelor's thesis is analysis identified theological themes from the catholic theological perspective primarily trinitarian theology, christology and soteriology. This last chapter is culmination of my thesis.